SCOTTONIAN

Thirty-Eighth Edition

Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One

Jesup W. Scott
High School
Toledo, Ohio

Foreword

The staff of 1951 has selected for its theme the spirit of cooperation that is found in Scott High School among the various races represented in the student body. Because the age in which we are living is one that is striving toward better understanding among all races, religions and creeds, we feel that our choice is a timely one.

Scott High School is somewhat like a miniature United Nations Organization. Here we study together and participate in the same activities. What better way of learning global living could there be than that afforded here through daily working side by side in class rooms, athletic field, and auditorium assemblies?

Through these cooperative activities Scott has added many honors to her already illustrious name. Our student council, our football teams, our club program, our publications, our scholastic achievements—all have been the accomplishment of a unified student body of the several races working harmoniously day after day to attain noteworthy goals.

As you turn the pages of this 1951 Scottonian you will see our presentation of the three races at Scott as they work, learn, and play together here in our school.

American government classes of Miss Irene O'Brien presented to Scott a four-by-six, light blue and white silk United Nations flag at an assembly October 24, the fifth anniversary of the founding of the world organization. Mr. Langstaff is shown receiving the flag from Grace Frye and Sam Taylor, American government students.

Chinese, Spanish, Russian, and French students served as interpreters at the demonstration of how the United Nations Security Council and General Assembly work. At this assembly small silk flags of the sixty member-nations were placed in a standard as the names of the countries were read, and a spotlight was thrown upon them. Bookmark programs made by the art department were distributed to the students with the reminder "There shall be peace."

Dedication

The staff of 1951 dedicates the Scottonian to a man who has played a major part in making this year an outstanding one in the annals of our school.

Ralph Merickel—truly our “miracle man”—has helped our football team to attain Scott’s first undisputed city championship title in twenty-one years. A Scott graduate and former grid star himself, he is beloved by all his pupils, not only as a coach but as an understanding teacher and friend.

With his championship squad he has proved that the combination of races here at Scott could work together to form an exceptional team. He has shown that this combination increases the ability of a team to accomplish its goal.

And so, Mr. Merickel, we feel it is especially fitting that we should dedicate this yearbook to you who have done so much for us not only during the past year, but throughout the many years you have spent at Scott as student, teacher, and coach. Your slogan for your team this year was “It’s fun to win!” You have won the honor of having this thirty-eight Scottonian dedicated to you!

Ralph Merickel

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Mr. E. L. Bowsher has done much to further the welfare of Scott as well as of every other public school in Toledo. He is always open to any suggestion given to him that will improve the educational facilities of our school system.

Mr. Bowsher, as one of the outstanding school superintendents in the United States, took an extensive six week trip throughout Europe, last spring, to observe the workings of their schools. Although he found the European schools interesting and carrying on under difficult circumstances, Mr. Bowsher says that he came back with strong faith in the American educational system as exemplified in the Toledo school system.

Richard J. Langstaff

PRINCIPAL OF SCOTT

As principal of Scott High School for the past seven years, Richard J. Langstaff has kept our school running smoothly. Every student knows the efficiency with which he meets the various problems that confront him throughout each day. The integration of races at Scott is just one of the many challenges he has met with signal success.

Daily friendly contact with the student body marks his carrying out of his work. Whether he is delivering a 'pep' talk at a football assembly, addressing the newly-elected members of the Honor Society, or solemnly installing the president of the Student Council, Mr. Langstaff can be depended upon to say just the right words to please and inspire the students.

OFFICE STAFF

Mrs. Margaret Biggs

Mrs. Marian Masell

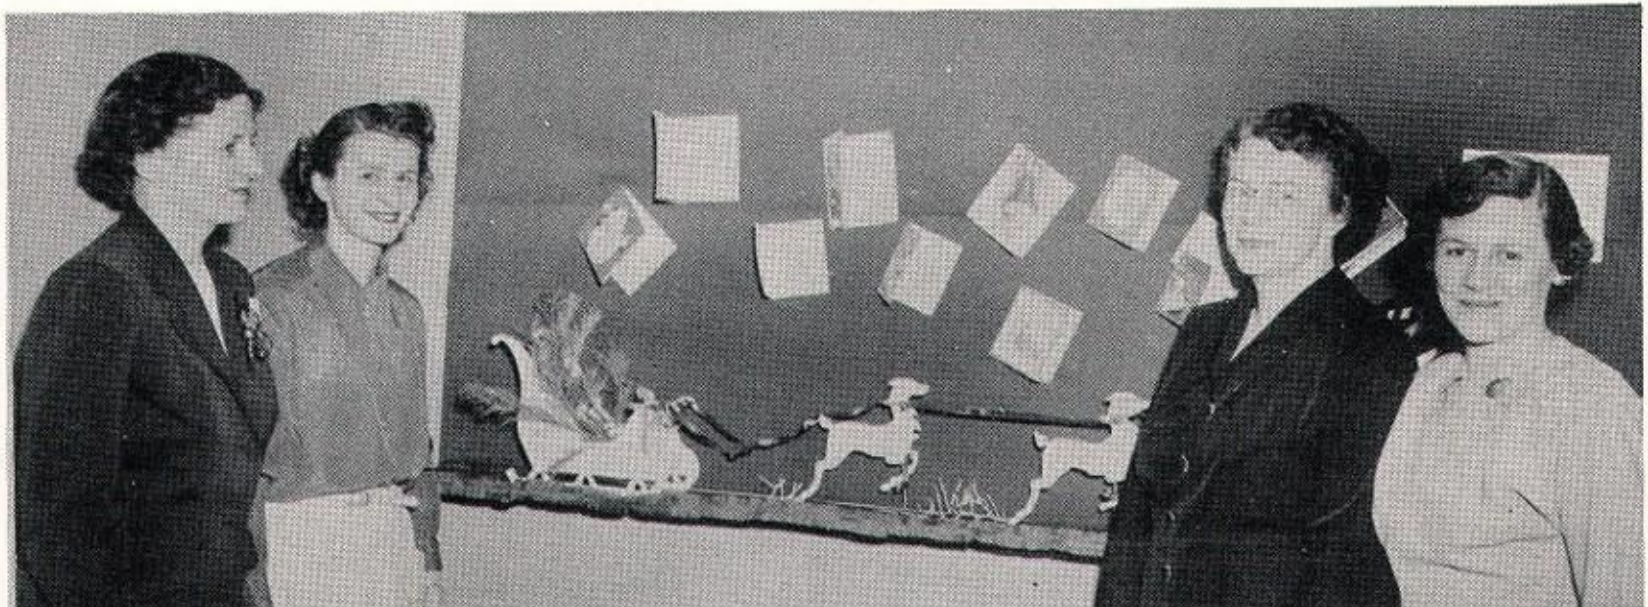

Miss Joanne Eagle

Mrs. Ursula Stein

The Scott office force is kept very busy from September to June (and also during the summer months) keeping track of the daily attendance and grades of the 1300 students, preparing college transcripts for seniors, issuing books for all students, and taking care of the finances of the various organizations. In between times they graciously answer the many queries put to them by those who enter the office daily.

The office girls wish everyone a very merry Christmas!

DEAN OF BOYS

Vernon R. Alberstett is always ready to assist a boy who needs help in any type of school problem. His friendly voice is heard every sixth hour over the public address system bringing us the day's announcements. Mr. Alberstett's willingness to offer advice has earned him the friendship of every boy at Scott.

DEAN OF GIRLS

Well known for her winning smile and reassuring way is Miss Anne Smead, our dean of girls. Under her sympathetic guidance the girls find their high school careers progress more smoothly. Miss Smead well deserves the thanks and appreciation of Scott for her long and gracious service.

DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Louise Meffley, as director of student activities at Scott, devotes a great deal of time and effort to the Scott Student Council. She supervises their Monday morning meetings, advises the commissioners throughout the day, and attends the monthly meetings of the Board of Commissioners held at the homes of its members. The responsibility of well planned assemblies, the holding of various drives throughout the year, and the smoothly-running club program all rest on her shoulders.

TESTING DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Marian Masell, Carolyn
Tompkins, Miss Wilma Kudzia,
Marda Gephart, Carolyn Lewis,
Miss Vera Baymiller.

The new testing program which has been developed at Scott in the last few years under the direction of Miss Vera Baymiller, our testing officer, has a two-fold purpose. It is used to determine the strengths and weaknesses of students in fundamental basic skills. Then the results are used in the counseling and guidance of students as to which subjects to take, in what classes they are enrolled, and the nature of the work done in those classes.

Miss Baymiller and her assistants administer the big group tests, grade papers, keep records, and get the results back to the deans, teachers, parents and students.

COLLEGE ADVISORY

Miss Eleanor Longbrake, new college advisor this year, succeeding Miss Jane Lewis, retired, points out the merits of one of the schools featured on the college bulletin board on second floor. Barbara Lemle and Charles Kaminsky are listening to her explanation.

The Scott P. T. A. started its 1950-51 season with an extensive membership drive headed by Mrs. Henry Olnhausen and Mrs. Robert Powell. At a reception, for which Mrs. Lynn Crim and Mrs. Jesse Plummer were co-chairmen, the parents that were new members were welcomed. In January, the P. T. A. sponsored a hockey game to raise money for their welfare projects. Mrs. Leon Save and Mrs. Robert Repass were in charge of this campaign.

In the spring, they again presented a variety show starring both parents and students. Plans for this project were made by Mrs. Henry Cossitt. Mrs. Leland Lord headed the annual music festival, always a big event in the school year. The Scott P. T. A. ended another successful season with the senior reception that was held after the baccalaureate service. It was capably managed by Mrs. Cyril Greenhill.

The sophomore class has been ably led this year by Mary Rupp, president, Tom Wing, vice president, Ann Backus, secretary, and Lynn Backus, treasurer.

Their main activity of the year was a dance held April 15, 1951, in the cafeteria. This class has shown a great deal of enthusiasm in all they have attempted and we know they will be a credit to our school.

JUNIOR CLASS

Gloria Gilbert

Carolyn Newman

Virginia Nehrig

Gussie Colbert

Juniors elected their officers early in October. They chose Gloria Gilbert, president, Carolyn Newman, vice president, Virginia Nehrig, secretary, and Gussie Colbert, treasurer.

Under the supervision of Miss Margaret Schaff, the class adviser, the ring committee, headed by Stanley Michota, took the orders for the class rings in December. Every junior anxiously anticipated the day in March when he would receive his ring.

Just as the sale of the rings was a great success, so was the annual J-Hop, sponsored by the class of '52. With Francis Ploeger heading the publicity committee to advertise it, and Annette Cossitt, social committee chairman, to plan it, the dance, held March 3, 1951, in the Woman's Building, was enjoyed by the large number who attended it.

SENIOR CLASS

Mary Lou Thompson

Steve Shawaker
Miss Margaret Schaff

Nora Poulson

Mary Flo Boyd

It's hard for us to believe that at one time, not too long ago, we were nothing but freshmen, at the very bottom of the scale. And this year we were seniors, finally reaching the goal it took us four long years to achieve.

Our class has been a bright light in Scott's history from the very beginning. When we were freshmen our president was Bill Kalb, ably assisted by Secretary-Treasurer, Nora Poulson and a council consisting of Richard McQuillan, Mary Boyd, Hester Staunton, and Larry Zaft.

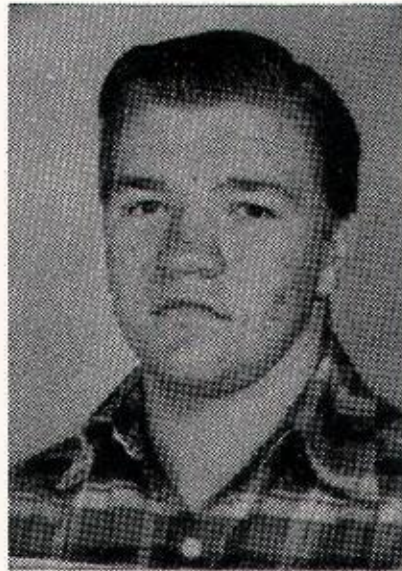

The next year we were no longer neophytes and enjoyed success in all we attempted. We were led by Carolyn Lord, president, Shirley Baber, vice president, Jane Davis, secretary, and Hester Staunton, treasurer. The high light of that year was our Sophomore Prom.

The next year we were juniors and almost there. It was a big year for us, and, under the able leadership of Mary Boyd, president, and Steve Shawaker, Hester Staunton, and Ann Colbert, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively, we ordered our class rings and gave Scott a J-Hop that it will never forget.

At last the year that would be our last one spent at Scott was here. We elected Mary Boyd president, Mary Lou Thompson vice president, Nora Poulson secretary, and Steve Shawaker treasurer. Our senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen", was as enjoyable to its audiences as it was to us who gave it. Who can forget our trip to Chicago, the Senior Prom, and most of all, the baccalaureate service? It seems especially sad this year to leave all our friends with whom we have shared so much these past four years. In this day of conflict and unrest, we can only hope for the best for ourselves and our friends in the future.

IN MEMORIAM

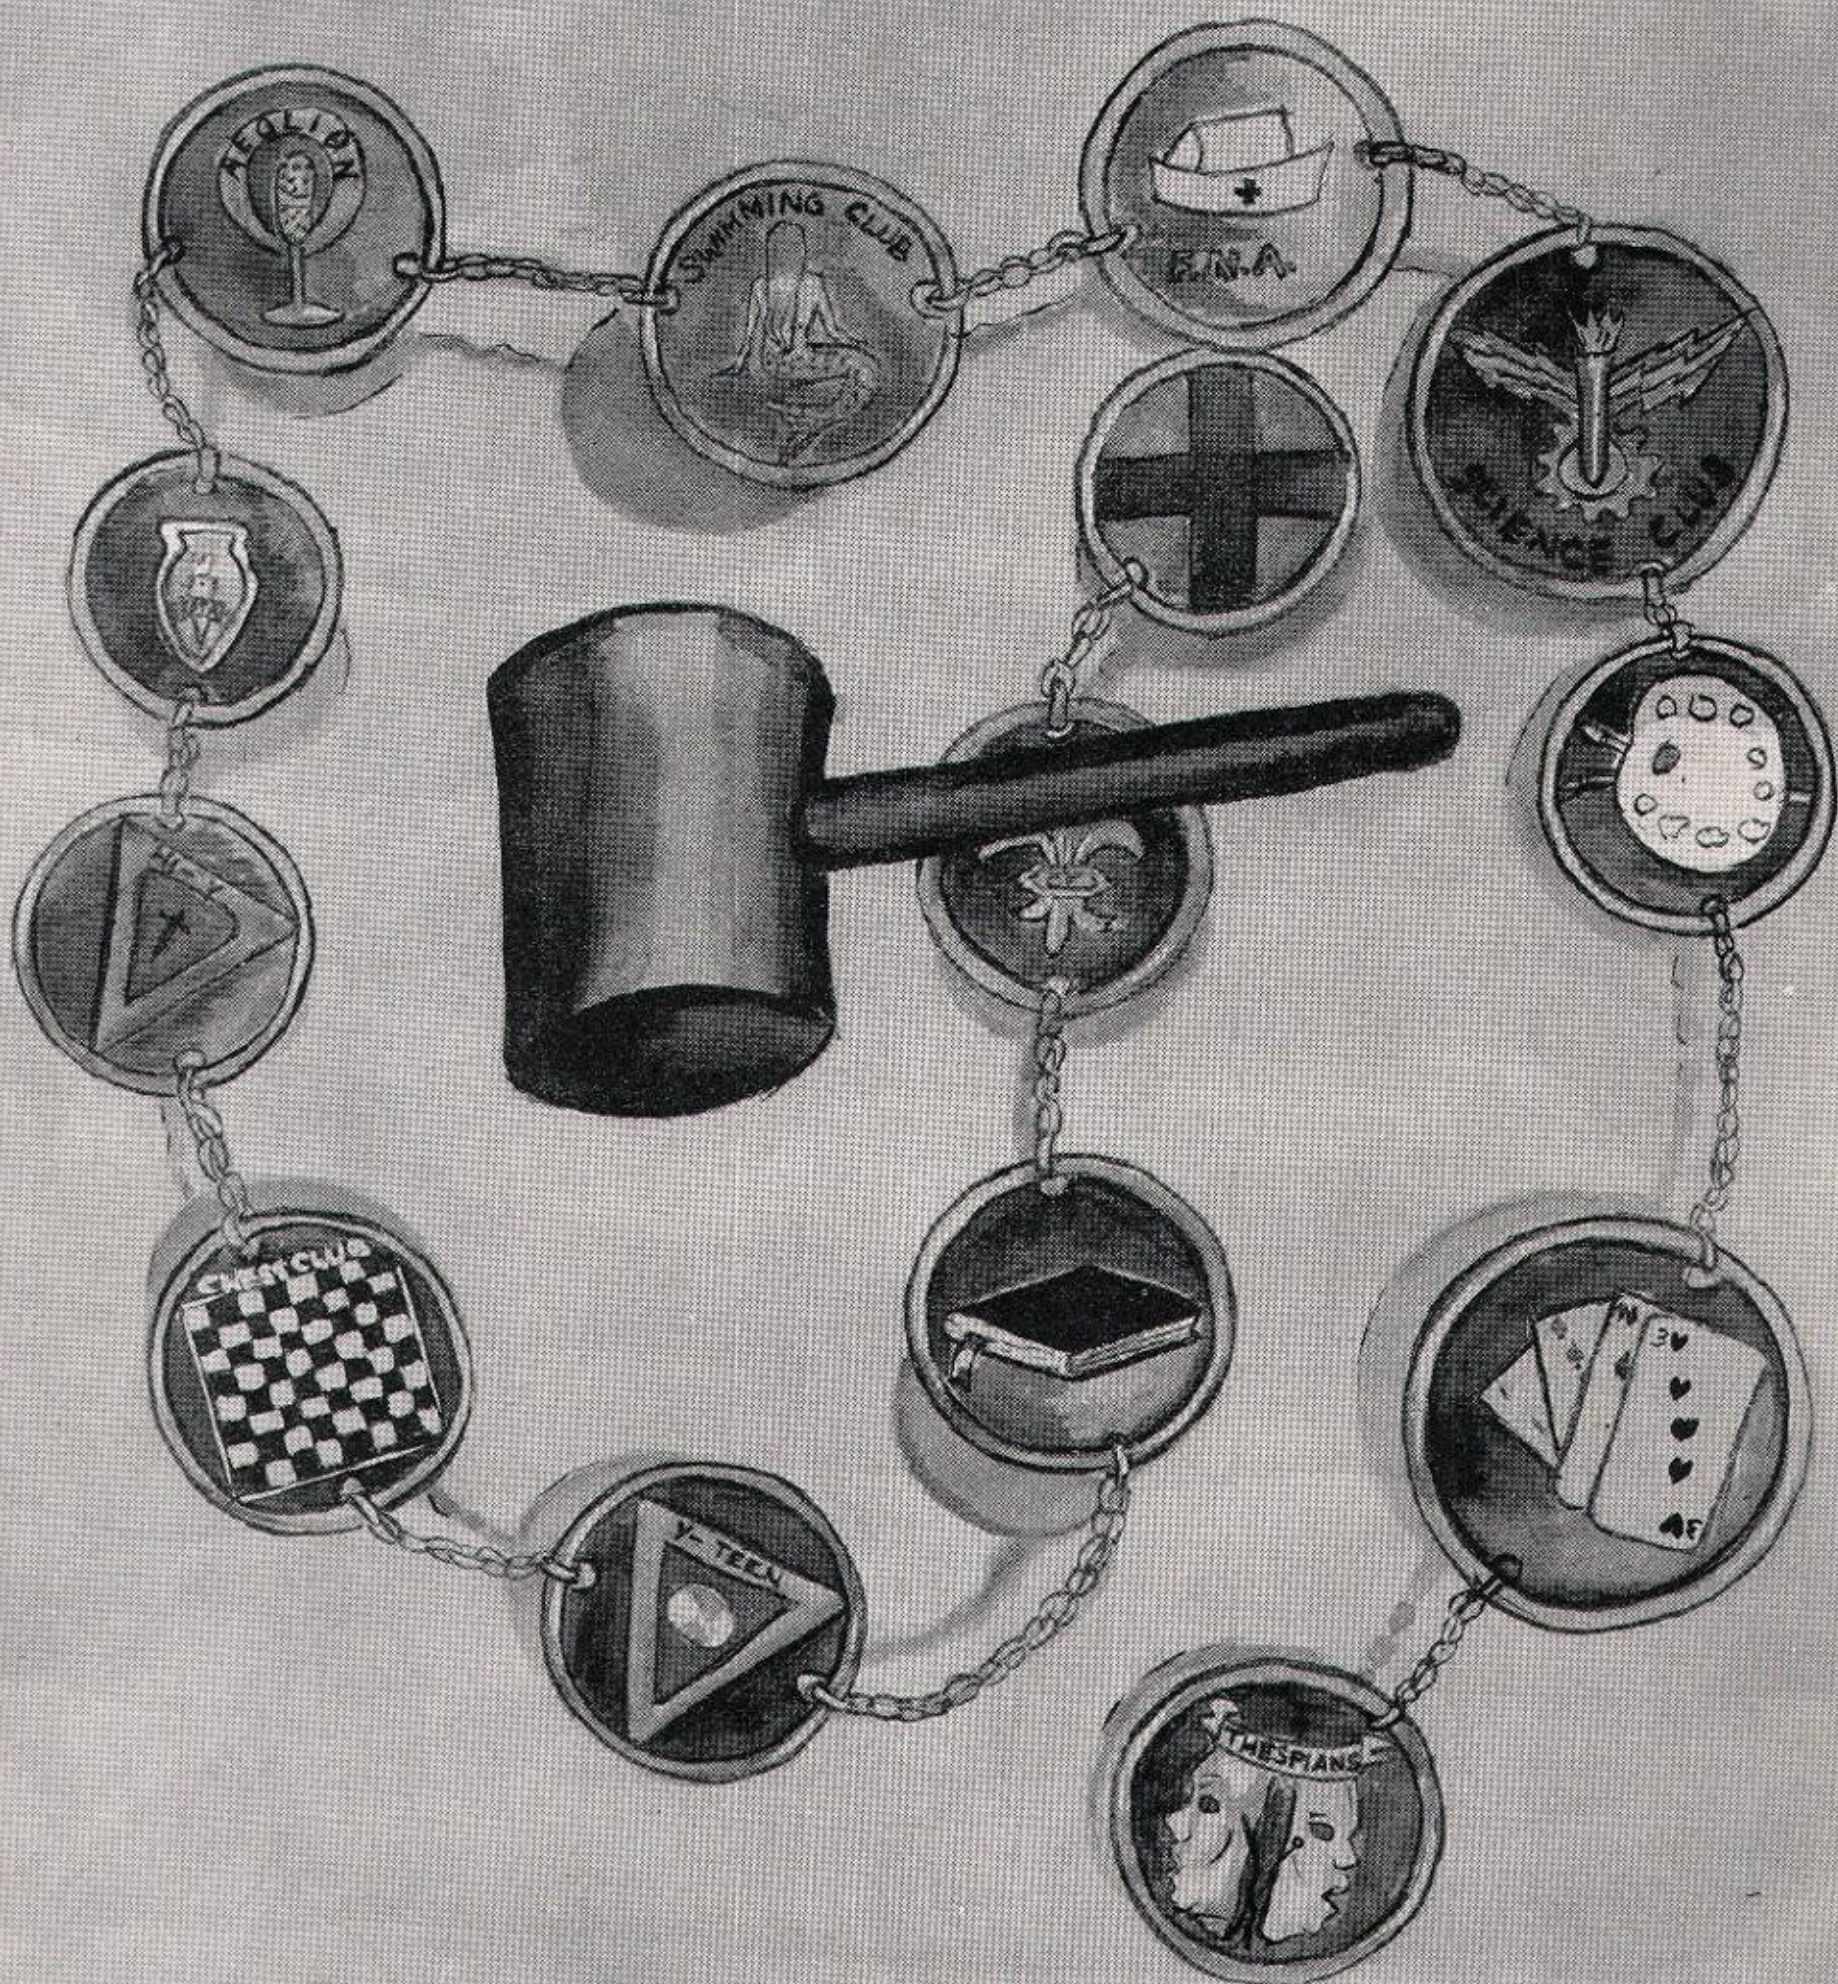

Kyle Hoffman

Once again the future of our young men has been clouded by war. The Scottonian dedicates this page to the memory of Kyle Hoffman, former Scott student, who lost his life in the Korean conflict. Kyle, a member of the Marine reserves, would have been graduated in June, 1951, but was called into service in the summer of 1950. Scott High School extends its sympathy to his parents.

For its chief enterprise of the year, the Aeolian Club staged the Scott-Waite Assembly successfully. On March 9, they put on the Scott Skits in which both parents and students exhibited their talent. During the month of March they put on their annual Shamrock Shuffle. Participating in the Fun Day assembly was another one of their many activities.

ORCHESTRA

President Vivian De Christopher
 Vice President Pat Henry
 Secretary-Treasurer Roger Vogelsang,
 Advisor Mr. Myron Gerber

During the first semester the orchestra played for the Student Council installation and the Christmas assembly. In January they broadcast from station WTDS and also gave a program at the State Hospital. Later in the semester the orchestra played for the Easter assembly and the induction of the Honor Society. Their most important program was their part in the annual Spring Music Festival. The orchestra closed the school year by playing at the commencement exercises, an event which would be incomplete without their performance.

The Symphonic Choir, composed of 72 members, continuously prepared for its many appearances throughout the school year. The most inspiring of these performances was the Christmas Assembly.

Among the programs participated in by the choir this year were the Annual Music Festival and city-wide choral concert at the Art Museum. They also assisted in the program for the U.N. Day recognition at Scott, and in the Easter Services at Trinity Church.

The Symphonic Choir has become one of the outstanding groups here at Scott. The school is proud of this group and of its leader, Mr. Myron Gerber.

This has been a very busy year for the Youth on the Beam club. Each month something special is planned such as Youth Round Ups for all Y.O.B'ers in all the city high schools. The club has accomplished much in its meetings. Biblical reading book marks have been passed out in all home rooms by Y.O.B'ers. Various speakers have come to speak at Scott's Y.O.B. Club. These, among many other activities, have made this year a well rounded one for the Youth on the Beam Club.

ART CLUB

President	Pat Pierce
Vice President	Laura Hopkins
Secretary	Mary Reiter
Treasurer	Wendell Dilworth
Advisor	Mrs. Carolyn Hatfield

The year 1950-51 has been a full one for the Art Club. They started their season by decorating the tables for the annual football mothers luncheon and for the football banquet.

Members planned a Christmas party during which they had a gift exchange. They took several trips to the Art Museum, and concluded their activities by having a speaker at their final meeting.

Under the direction of Mr. Welday the Chess Club has become a very well known organization in the city. The team has matches with other Toledo high schools and other schools in this locality. They have an enviable record of games won, which they hope to maintain.

FUTURE TEACHERS

President	Joan Krolak
Vice President	Susan Hirsch
Secretary	Louise Dougherty
Treasurer	Carolyn Tompkins
Advisor	Miss Irene O'Brien

To explore the field of teaching in order to recruit the finest and best young people for the profession of teaching is the purpose of the Future Teachers of America. This organization ushered on BIE (Business, Industry and Education) Day, and at the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Convention. They observed teaching methods at various schools in this locality. They also attended a conference at Toledo University, and sponsored teas for the faculty and the FTA of Woodward High School and FNA of Scott. All in all they have had a very busy year, and through their many activities have learned some of the fundamentals of the teaching profession.

Advisor	Mrs. Dorothy Harrison

By means of tours through Flower, Parkview, and St. Vincent Hospitals, members of the Future Nurses Club gained an idea of the work and training of those who care for the sick. The girls were much impressed by hospital organization.

In December the Future Nurses and the Junior Y-Teens collaborated to entertain the children at the Lutheran Orphanage and to sing carols at the Old Folks Home. The girls enjoyed it so much that they hope to repeat the undertaking before the close of school.

In January the club held an after-school fudge sale and sponsored a dance after the Scott-Libbey basketball game. Their profits swelled their welfare fund.

Members feel that they have had a very enjoyable and profitable year.

The purpose of this club is to study and dramatize the great plays of Shakespeare.

This year they have read the plays "As You Like It" and "Hamlet". On April 23 they celebrated the birth of the Bard of Avon by a special program. Hidemi Takeshita designed a club emblem for the group this year.

President	Gary Owen
Vice President	Tom Wing
Secretary	Guy Hartman
Treasurer	Jim Duffey
Chaplain	Arkel Partoyan
Advisor	Mr. Norman Holland

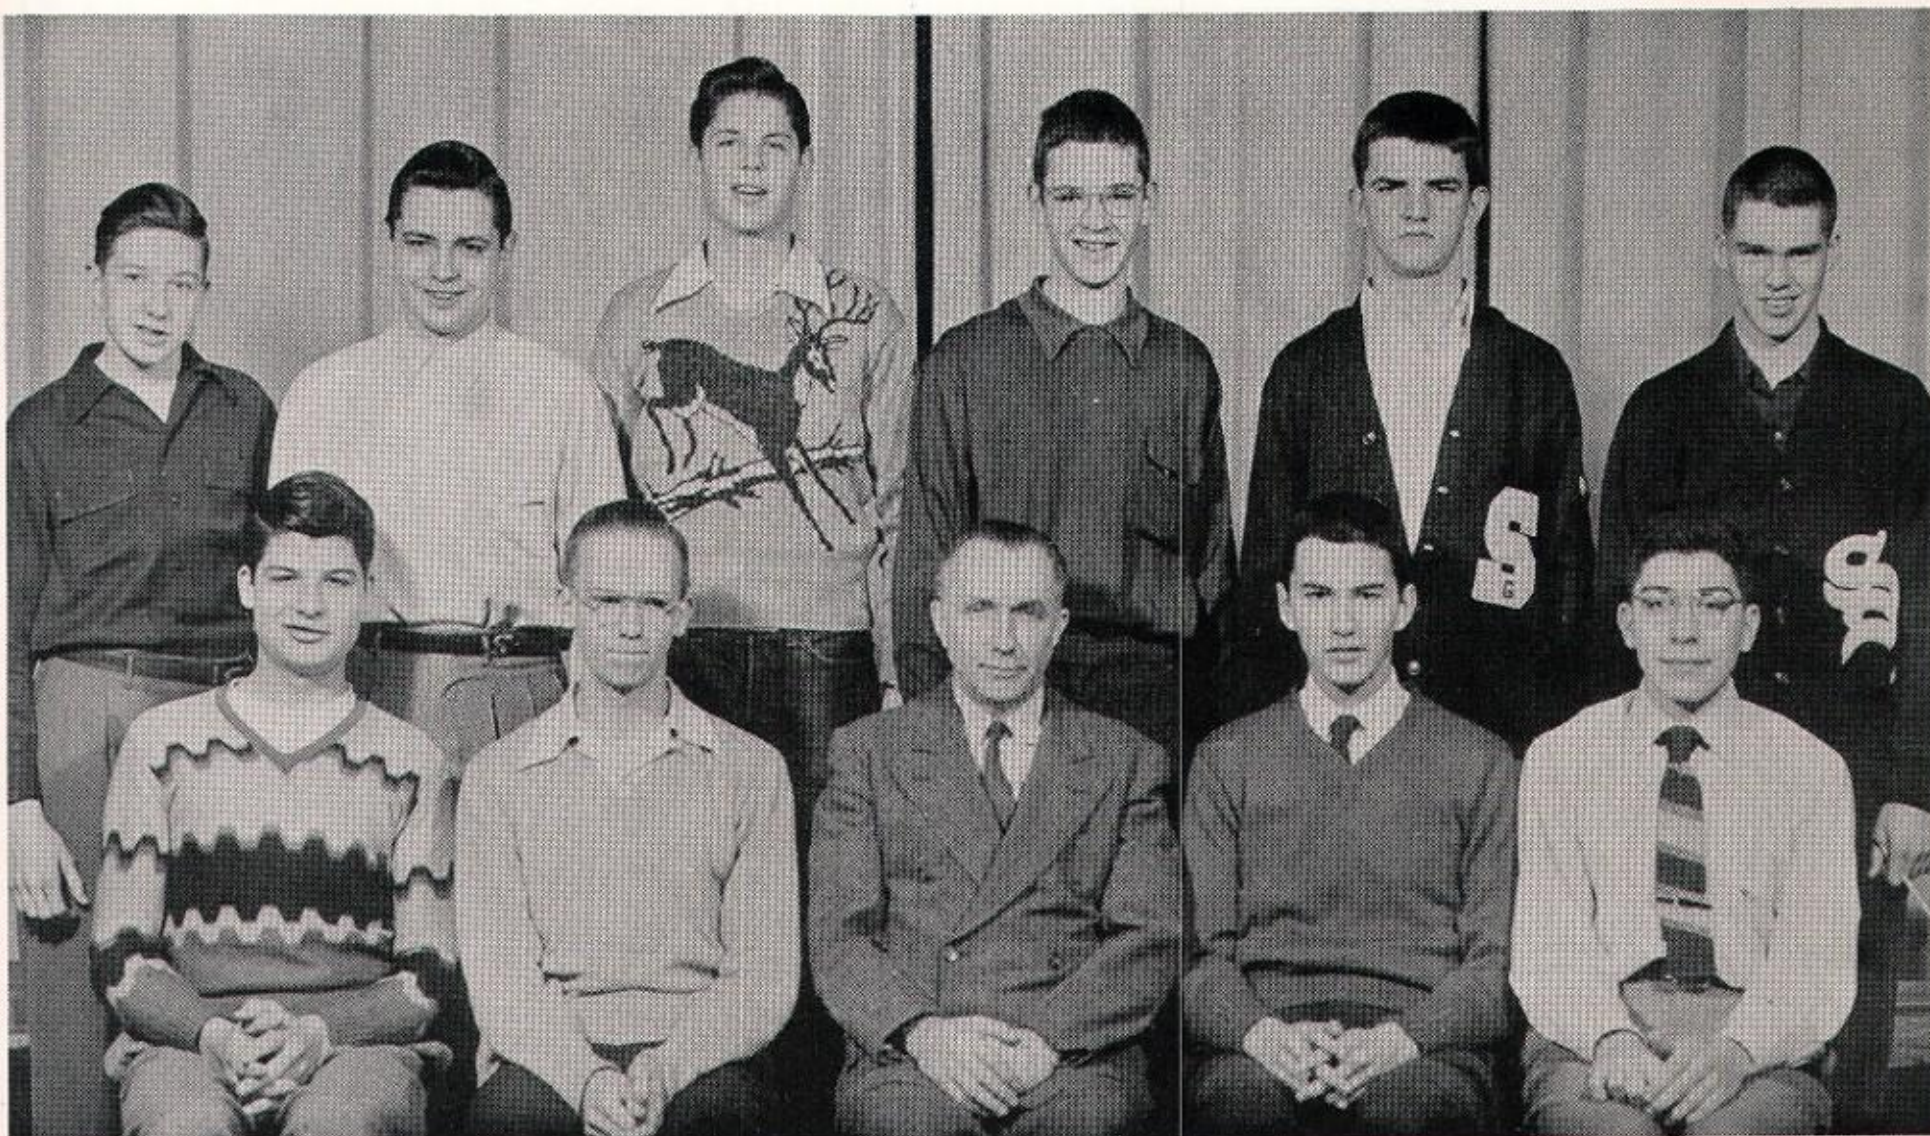

The Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y Club has been very active this year. They had a basketball tournament and a ping-pong tournament, and during football season kept outsiders from watching our football champs practice. Their money-making projects have included a very successful basketball dance and selling Scott pennants. They had a hay-ride in the spring and participated in a panel discussion with the Sophomore Y-Teens on "Every Day Life". Their other discussions this year have dealt with many subjects ranging from Church Attendance to Behavior in School.

TOP ROW: Arkel Partoyan, Tom Elliott, Ira Williams, Tom Todak, Ronald Korsted, Dick Wachter, Robert Rowland, David Knauf.

Treasurer	Jack Knaus
Chaplain	Robert McClain
Advisor	Mr. Russell Mater

The Junior Hi-Y has spent much time and effort in building up their club so as to prepare their members for a better future. They heard talks on College Preparation, Parliamentary Procedure, and Leadership. They attended the Hi-Y Teen weekend at Camp Storer, and Hi-Y open house at the YMCA and are looking forward with eagerness to their next year's activities in Hi-Y work.

SENIOR HI-Y

President	Phil Oberlin
Vice President	Richard Arndt
Secretary	Raymond Bowman
Treasurer	Donald Tom
Chaplain	Boyd Brown
Advisor	Mr. O. B. Kirk

The Senior Hi-Y organized late this year but immediately plunged into action. Some of their many activities included induction ceremonies and co-sponsoring the Sweetheart Swirl. They also challenged the lightweights to a basketball game, and had a picnic in the spring.

The main purpose of this club is to promote character building.

This year has, as usual, been a very busy and very successful one for the "Zets". They sponsored a formal banquet, a tea for their mothers, and a hayride. They also collected books for an orphanage, and listened to important speakers and records of literary importance. The pledges made scrapbooks for the crippled children. At Christmas time the members sang carols at the Old Folks Home.

To promote interest in literature is the main goal of the Zets. To provide interesting entertainment for the large membership is an important goal also.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Lois Bentley
Historian

The purpose of the Scott Student Council is to provide a representative form of government in the school. The council represents the entire student body. Officers chosen this year were Jim Wertz, president; Sam Taylor, vice president; and Grace Frye, secretary.

The council consists of seven commissions. They are Assembly, Athletic, Finance, Organizations, Publicity, Social, and Welfare. There is also an historian whose duty it is to record the activities of the school. These commissions are headed by junior and senior students.

The separate commissions or the entire council has planned and carried out many activities. The student council members sold programs at three football games and ushered at all home games. At Christmas time, they put up the tree and hall decorations. They helped with the various drives such as the PTA, Community Chest, and the March of Dimes. They sponsored several dances and helped with many others. Class elections were also organized and supervised by members of the council. These were the more widely known activities, but there were also numerous small jobs that often went unnoticed.

Mrs. Meffley, the advisor, was always near to give a helping hand to anyone needing suggestions, and the council, with her help, completed another successful year.

Beset by financial difficulties, the 1950-51 Thistle was printed only four times during the year. However, the issues which appeared at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and the end of the school year were equal to the high standards established by the Thistle over the years.

Jim Mann was editor-in-chief of the paper. Because of the small staff, he "tripled in brass" as the news editor, sports editor, and page make-up editor. Securing ads and seeing that the printer was paid were the two principal jobs of business manager Stan Michota who also helped out in many capacities. Louise Dougherty ('School Daze') was in charge of the feature page and was assisted by Helen Diver and Lynn Miller. The latter also faithfully sent out exchange copies of the Thistle to other schools.

Photographers Dick Arndt and Charles Alexander again kept the Thistle well supplied with pictures. The typing was done by Mattie Frames and Roberta Balsinger.

Several members of the staff attended the four journalism clinics sponsored by the Toledo Blade. Jeanne Graeff and Lynn Miller were awarded prizes by the Blade for their interviews of the celebrated columnist Dorothy Thompson. The staff also had representatives at the annual spring journalism convention at Bowling Green.

Miss Geraldine Leitner, faculty advisor, was always ready and able to help the staff when it met with difficulties.

SCOTTONIAN

Miss Leitner's Scottonian crew of 1951 has been going "full steam ahead" since September trying to produce a book that students will treasure.

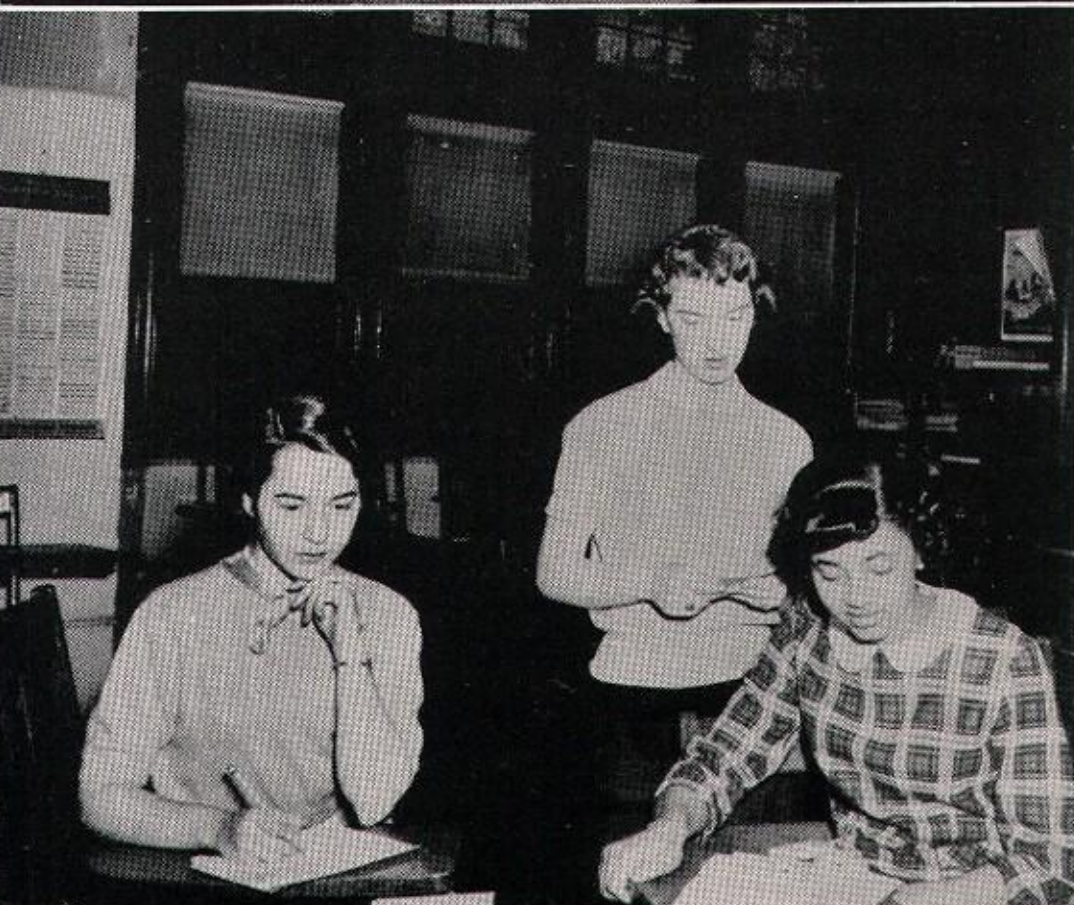

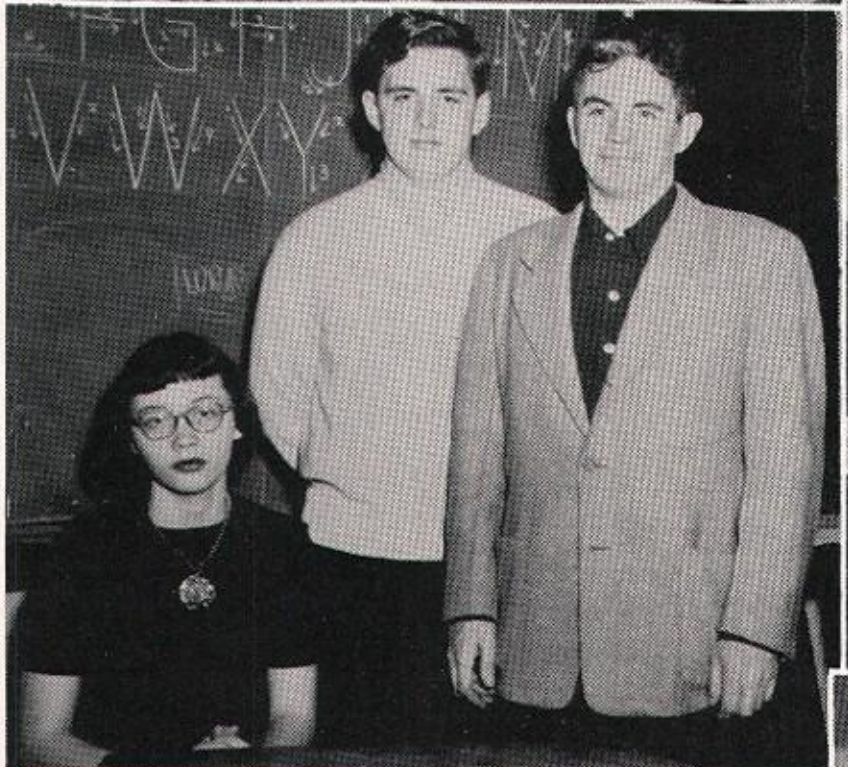

You may appreciate the art work on the division pages, but you probably won't realize the work behind them. The theme and its related drawings are the inspiration of Mary Biggs, art editor. Richard Arndt, Charles Alexander, and Victor Lanier have been busy furnishing snapshots to complete all sections. Dale Scheiderer did the lettering on the division pages.

Bonnie Minnich, senior editor, and Barbara Rogers, underclass editor, could be seen in 215 preparing pictures for paneling. Pat Ayers, faculty editor, worked out new arrangements for her part of the book. The data concerning club activities were compiled by Billie Poulson and Virginia Fall, club editors.

Running up mileage on her pedometer gathering advertisements was Joyce Klag, advertising manager. The last section of the book is ample witness to the success of her industry. Nancy Shupe, business manager, was constantly checking the accounts and trying to increase subscriptions.

Dave Millstein, sports editor, finally completed all the writing for his section, while Lynn Miller composed the write-ups found in the first five sections. Mattie Frames worked hard typing the multitudinous copy required in publishing a year book.

These staff members are under the direction of Miss Leitner who never ceased in her efforts to guide them in their endeavor to produce a fine Scottonian. With her aid, Richard Arndt, editor, and his staff were able to present the 1951 year book to the student body on time.

Chuck,

Paragraph 1-

I am so glad your father gave you four dollars
so you could buy this book so I could write a whole page in it! If I knew what to write!! If I were but a great writer
I would write your whole book for you know how it goes. If this were a book that only you were to see I could probably think of something to write (won't it be nice in October??) If I'm here that is. Don't it a shame my two favourites don't get along any better than they do?? Not much farther to go have I? Still haven't said anything!! as your family will probably read this I would like to say how swell they all are (they are anyway whether they read it or not)
Have a nice summer and I'll see you next year? (Ha/Ha)

P.S.

I didn't think I could do it did you??

(P.S. I'm the only one who didn't say anything about football. Good luck anyway)

In the spring of 1950, Ralph Merickel, newly-appointed varsity head coach, renewed acquaintance with his former '48 city lightweight football champs to undertake the task of training the squad that might possibly bring Scott an undisputed city league championship. For twenty-one long years Scott had failed to have a Bulldog eleven accomplish this task, or, within the last thirteen seasons, to outscore Waite on Thanksgiving.

The Scott Athletic Board, noting the results Merickel obtained in '48 with his lightweights, placed their confidence in him, together with his spirited new assistant Artie Brighton, veteran coach Andy Kandik, and trainer Watson Welever. The outcome was an undisputed city league championship and a 33-0 trouncing of Waite at the Thanksgiving Day classic, much to the satisfaction of the faithful Scott followers.

The Scott champs led Toledo high schools in All-City nominations as the Blade and Times unanimously chose Henry Garn, Russell Taylor, and George Arnold for the mythical first string. End George Arnold led the city in all-game scoring with 66 points, while guard Russ Taylor led the city in conversions with 21. Taylor was able to accomplish this feat because the Scott team led all other city schools in touchdown production.

Placed on the second team All-City were tackle Roger Vogelsang, guard Ralph Rhoten, center Sandy Olnhausen, end Ben Wisbon, and back Don Huddleston. Huddleston and Melvin Mitchell were among the top ten scorers of the city.

The Times and Blade gave honorable mention to Mel Mitchell, Larry Moorehead, Ken Boost, Bill Shay, John Bundros, Donald Tom, Morris Davis, and Charles Twitty. Lineman John Lecklider was chosen most valuable substitute by his fellow team mates.

All in all, seventeen Scott gridders were honored by Toledo newspapers, along with Mr. Merickel for his fine showing during his first year as head coach.

COACHING STAFF: Art Brighton, Joe Collins, Andy Kandik, Head Coach Ralph Merickel, Bob Lewis.

Scott13
Ann Arbor34

It was an opportune time for Ann Arbor High School (Michigan's number 1 ranking team in class B) to face Scott and gain its eleventh straight victory because it gave the Pioneers, going into this contest, the advantage of starting football practice two weeks before Scott. This opening contest gave Scott the disadvantage of failing to see the services of starters Phil Oberlin, Chuck Tooman, Jim Bundros, and Bill Shay.

Ann Arbor's all around speed was too much for Scott, although the Bulldogs did manage to stop A. A. plays directed at the middle of the Collingwood line with Curtiss Morris, John Bundros, Ken Boost, and Larry Moorehead doing the lion's share of the stopping.

The two scores for Scott came on a Garn-to-Huddleston pass play and a 10 yard scamper by Mel Mitchell.

Scott27
DeVilbiss 7

Entering Page Stadium, September 22, the Scott Bulldogs were 14 point underdogs to a Tiger aggregation which was rated as the team to beat in the city league race by nearly all coaches. The DeVilbiss line, averaging 207 lbs., was quite possibly the biggest line in the state.

The Merickel-coached team was undaunted by these advantages as the Bulldogs hit hard and often with tremendous speed. No Scotters hit harder than Larry Moorehead, Ben Wisbon, or Russ Taylor that night.

Scott20
Grand Rapids20

The Michigan class A state champions were gunning for their seventeenth straight victory upon entering Seibert Stadium with the idea of duplicating last season's 42 to 13 triumph.

For the first 20 minutes of the tussle the "upped" Scott line led by Taylor, Wisbon, Bundros, Vogelsang, and Boost, were dropping Grand Rapids charges for loss after loss. The Michigan state champs were unable to gain a first down or gain any positive yardage while the Bulldogs had already drawn blood with a Garn-to-Arnold pass play ending in a Scott touchdown.

In desperation Central took to the airplanes in a last opportunity to stay in the ball game. The Grand Rapids passing attack clicked and as a result enabled the Cougars to procure a two touchdown lead going into the final stanza.

In the final period Scott retaliated with Garn going over from two yards out. Minutes later, with Scott in possession of the ball, all eyes were on Garn. The tall, lanky halfback gave the ball on a quick hand-off to Mel Mitchell who cracked off his own right tackle and drove 25 yards into the end zone and scored. With a story book finish, Russ Taylor's try for extra point was successful, and Grand Rapids' consecutive win streak was halted.

Scott26
Central14

Much credit for this victory must be ascribed to the sturdy line play of Ben Wisbon, Larry Moorehead, and John Lecklider who were continually breaking up Irish thrusts. Ample credit must go to the blocking of Russ Taylor, Roger Vogelsang, and Sandy Olnhausen that enabled the fleet-footed Mel Mitchell to shake himself loose for touchdown runs of 46 and 31 yards. With the protection the Scott line was affording, Garn was able to hit George Arnold with a touchdown pass, as well as score once himself.

Scott34

Whitmer13

Going into the second quarter trailing suburban Whitmer, the Scott Bulldogs suddenly became aware of the strategy the Panthers had aimed at its line. Ben Wisbon then began to constantly break through the Whitmer line to throw their ball carriers for tremendous losses. Wisbon, along with the solid line play of Russ Taylor, Roger Vogelsang, Larry Moorehead, and John Lecklider, effectively stopped Whitmer both defensively and offensively.

Scott touchdowns were scored by Arnold, Huddleston, and Mitchell. The last one came when Mitchell retrieved a Whitmer punt that was blocked by Ralph Rhoten and Ben Wisbon.

Scott14 12 7 14 47

Woodward 0 0 7 12 19

Rolling up 47 points against Woodward this year marks the first time since the fall of 1937 (when a Scott squad belted another Woodward team 60 to 0) that a Bulldog football team was able to rally a total that high.

George Arnold, by playing a heads up defensive game, was able to lead his team offensively by scoring three touchdowns. Two of Arnold's touchdowns resulted in interceptions of Woodward passes that he returned 43 and 87 yards for scores. George's other touchdown came after pulling in a Garn over-the-line pass and then reeling off 50 yards to the goal line.

Mel Mitchell, Don Huddleston, and Larry Moorehead each intercepted a Woodward aerial also. Mitchell's interception was made on his own 30 yard line and returned 70 yards for a T.D. Huddleston made his 20 yards out from the Bear end zone and immediately crossed it; Moorehead's was on the Woodward 25, but he was pulled down 6 yards short of 6 points. Garn shoved the pigskin over three plays later.

Hank Garn, who was given an honorable mention on the All-American high school team, produced the longest run of the day with a 95 yard return kick-off. Key blocks by Dick Auger and Ken Boost helped set Garn on his way.

Scott 7 7 0 0 14

Libbey 0 0 7 0 7

On October 27, 1950, the Jesup W. Scott High School football team handed their coach, Ralph Merickel, the city football title by virtue of their conquest over Libbey High School.

The Central Irish aided the Bulldog's early season championship by winning its only game of the year over Waite: 14 to 0. The Indians were the only possible contenders.

Scott scored the first time they attained possession of the pigskin. Don Huddleston on a reverse, skirted his right end for 5 and the score. Taylor converted.

In the second period George Arnold outdistanced the Cowboy secondary and then gathered in Hank Garn's 50 yard aerial and scored. Taylor again converted.

Libbey didn't try to crack the middle of the Scott line often, for each time they did try, Russ Taylor, Ralph Rhoten, Roger Vogelsang, John Lecklider, and Larry Moorehead were there to stop them. The Cowboys tried end sweeps mostly, though they were discouraged many times by big end Ben Wisbon.

Scott 0 6 0 13 19

Fremont Ross 6 7 2 6 21

This contest might have been summed up by the popular song "Give me five minutes more" as the Bulldogs began to finally pour it on the Little Giants in the waning minutes of play. The Bulldogs' last quarter spree might have paid off but for a costly fumble that ended a Scott drive on the Fremont 3 yard line. Scott did, however, manage to go on and score two more touchdowns, with the Garn to Arnold combo registering both.

"Pidgee" Goldstein scored the only other Bulldog T.D. on a quarterback sneak in the first half.

The Scott line, like the Scott backfield, didn't work too well until the latter part of the contest when Larry Moorehead, Ken Boost, Ben Wisbon, and John Lecklider made their presence known.

Scott	0	13	14	6	33
Waite	0	0	0	0	0

The Bulldogs took full advantage of the powerful and accurate passing arm of Garn to tally three times through the air against Waite.

Scott moved for the first touchdown when Garn hit Huddleston on the 27 for a 19 yard gain and a first down. On fourth down Garn connected with Arnold on the 12 and it was "George all the way."

Ralph Rhoten set up the next Scott score after recovering a Waite hand-off on the Indian 17 yard stripe. Garn then threw two passes, one to Arnold down to the 9, the other to Huddleston in the end zone.

Near the end of the first half, Garn heaved a pass to Ben Wisbon on the Waite 4, but Ben was stopped before he could get over.

Hank Garn passing again, and another aerial dropped into the hands of Don Huddleston for a 32 yard gain up to the Purple and Gold 33 yard line. An interference play moved the ball to the 21. On the next play Ben Wisbon slid out of the end zone with a Hank Garn pass snuggled in his arms.

The fourth Scott touchdown came when Garn himself went over from 1 yard out. The drive started when John Lecklider dropped on a Waite fumble on the Indian 18 yard line. Garn set the score up when he faked a pass and ran to the 5 yard line assisted by the fine blocking of Mel Mitchell, Russ Taylor, and John Bundros.

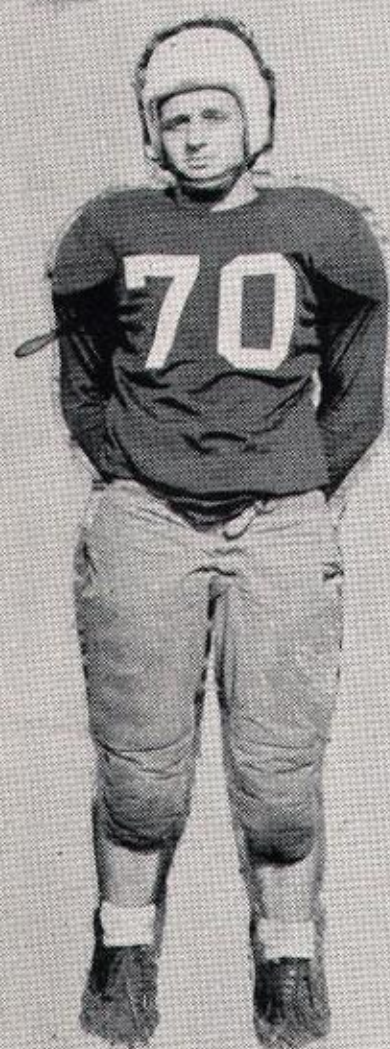

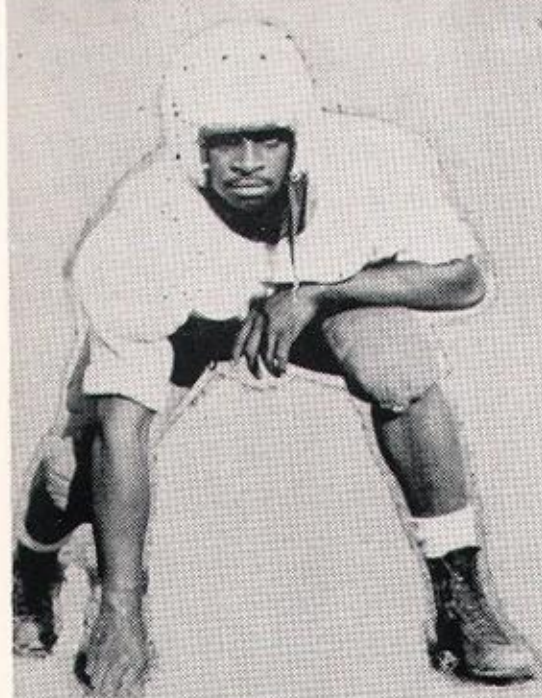

Mel Mitchell ended the scoring by racing around his right end for 5 yards. Don Huddleston set the score up with an interception of a Waite pass on his own 40 yard line and then returned it to the Waite 22. Linemen Larry Moorehead, Ken Boost, Russ Taylor, John Bundros, Roger Vogelsang, and John Lecklider were constantly rushing Waite passers and affording splendid protection for the Scott passing plays.

The victory over Waite was the first in 13 years and the first in 16 years to be won in the Scott stadium.

Scott's 10 and 10 record didn't justify the 1950-51 Bulldogs to any great extent. All the Bulldogs needed to have had a championship season would have been three extra baskets for all its games. The outcome might have been 7 extra victories, a city championship, and a chance at the regional tournament!

Going from fantasy to fact, the Bulldogs opened its 1950-51 campaign by discouraging Ottawa 55 to 41.

Only twice during the season was Scott really outclassed. The first time was at the hands of an oversized Elkhart team at Elkhart, Indiana 57 to 26.

Scott, however, again saw victory after its one-sided loss to Elkhart, when the Bulldogs stopped Libbey 62 to 38. The performance of George Arnold, an ex-Libbey boy, aided the Scott cause greatly.

On the Central court the second outclassing occurred when the Irish blasted Scott 50 to 27.

Scott recovered from Central soon enough to trounce Van Wert 53 to 38.

Macomber continued its unbeaten streak by squeaking past Scott 48 to 44. DeVilbiss also stopped Scott 47 to 42 in the Tiger den.

Scott next started on a three game win streak. Ann Arbor bowed to the Bulldogs 55 to 50, Woodward fell 42 to 31 (the Bears had beaten the Irish earlier in the season 47-46), and the Waite Indians were humbled 52 to 38.

As Waite fell to Scott, Central ended a Macomber 14 game win streak 61-43 in the T.U. field house.

Scott started the second round of league action by relinquishing a 2 point lead in the last 53 seconds and losing 43-41 to Libbey.

S.H.S. next got into the win column by virtue of a 46-42 victory over Whitmer, but Central then put them back in the opposite column with its 49 to 47 triumph. In the Central contest Scott missed 30 foul shots that might have spelled victory for the Scotters.

Scott continued its losing streak by dropping a 44-41 verdict to Macomber and a 55 to 40 decision to DeVilbiss.

Prior to the Scott-Macomber contest, Central remained in a deadlock with the Craftsmen for first place by eliminating Woodward 84 to 62. This total set a new aggregate scoring record for a city league game.

A week later Libbey set an over-all aggregate scoring record by lacing hapless Port Clinton 92 to 57.

Scott continued the high scoring against Port Clinton with its 64 to 45 win.

At Woodward the Bears recovered from a 19-14 first half deficit by taking advantage of the innumerable Scott miscues to win 35-33.

Scott ended the regular season with the city's best defensive showing illustrated by its 40-24 score against Waite.

Hank Garn was chosen as second string all-city and George Arnold and Larry Moorehead were given honorable mention. Although Dick Mitchell, Bill Shay, Lincoln Stevens, Don Huddleston, and Mel Mitchell received no honors, their presence was always felt.

"Doc" Meissner gave Scott High School another fine track team. It was mostly through Doc's personality and knowledge of boys that he was able to get every ounce of work out of them and then some, plus the stressing of keeping in condition that paved the way for the Scott tie with the city champion Libbey track team.

Scott	59
Libbey	59

The Scotters put on all the possible steam they could muster to snap Libbey's win streak of last season at the Cowboys' South Side corral.

A Libbey cowhand named Peron Dubard (a former prodigy of Doc Meissner) gave the Bulldogs much dismay throughout the meet.

Eight Bulldogs brought six first places home. Russ Kramer tied for first in the 120 yard high hurdles. Rad Fisher finished first in the mile run, George Owens in the 440, Dean Watkins in the broad jump, and Donald Dunbar, Ken Lowe, Rad Fisher, and George Owens in the relays.

The Bulldogs next found themselves in Indian country. The Indians were out after Bulldogs "meet" and came the closest to it as they have in the past 17 years (unofficially).

Dick Stewart legged the 100 yard dash in 10.8 to take Scott's first first of the afternoon. George Owens and Rad Fisher snagged firsts in the 440 and 880 as did Corky Haynes in the shot-put, Don Dunbar, Rad Fisher, Leroy Hammond, and George Owens in the mile relay, Russ Kramer in the 220 yard low hurdles, and Dean Watkins in the broad jump.

Scott	45
DeVilbiss	73

The Scott Bulldogs found that their guns weren't loaded for Tiger hunting and were able to take but three of fourteen events.

Rad Fisher, George Arnold, and Dean Watkins were the three first place finishers. Freshman Bobby Perez and Bob Perry made commendable performances, as they finished 2nd in the mile run and the high jump respectively.

This was Scott's first and only dual meet lost in the 1950 season. The Libbey Cowboys later in the season met the Tigers and upset the favored DeVilbiss squad, thus retaining its city crown.

Woodward	40 2/3

Scott gave up Tiger hunting for Polar Bear hunting and found that Bears don't run as fast as Tigers. This gave the Bulldogs time to gather 9 first places.

The first places were earned by Russ Kramer, Joe Burt, Don Dunbar, Dick Stewart, George Owens, Dean Watkins, Leroy Hammond, Rad Fisher, Dick Auger, George Arnold, Larry Coon, Bob Quinn and Ken Lowe. Bob Perez, Cocky Haynes, and Bob Perry were second place finishers.

BOWLING GREEN DISTRICT MEET

At Bowling Green the Bulldogs competed against all the Toledo high schools plus about 13 more schools from the Northwestern Ohio area.

Pitted against Trojans, Eagles, Little Giants, Red Men, etc., the Bulldogs managed 19 points and 4th place in the meet.

The legs and strength that brought in the points belonged to George Owens, Rad Fisher, George Arnold, and Dick Kiene.

The Libbey Cowboys won the meet by rustling 53 1/3 points.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY MEET

At Oxford, Ohio, the men of Scott rounded out an 8th place finish backed by 8 points that Dean Watkins, George Owens, and George Arnold brought in. In the field of 20 entries Dayton Dunbar won the most points.

DeVILBISS NIGHT RELAYS

The Mansfield Tygers brought all their strength down to Toledo for this meet and, as a result, copped the relays.

It was the first time in the history of the relays that an out of town school won the meet. The Tygers better than doubled any rival score with their 84 markers compared to Libbey's 41 and DeVilbiss's 39 1/2. Scott finished 8th with 8 points. George Arnold, Dean Watkins, the 4-lap relay team, and the shuttle relay produced the points.

STATE MEET

George Arnold produced Scott's only points as he hurdled the high jump over the 6 foot mark. Peron Dubard, former Scott star who now performs for Libbey, won the high jumping event with his new state record of 6 feet 5 inches.

KNEELING: Coach Meissner, Bill Millman, Gary Owen.

Again the Scott swimming team had an active year in intramurals and meets with the YMCA, Catholic Club and Fremont Ross. They also competed in the district at Bowling Green State University where eight boys qualified, and in the state meet at Columbus where the eight were unable to place.

In the intramurals six trophies were awarded. In the open class for boys who had earned a varsity letter before, Sam Taylor won first place, John Powell second, and Jack Wickland third. In the novice class Stan Michota took first among the juniors, Tom Ryan first in the sophomore class, and Jim Scheib first in the freshman group.

In meets this year Scott routed the Catholic Club 54 to 12, taking first places in every event, but didn't fare so well against the YMCA, losing 51 to 15. Against Fremont Ross, Scott put up a good battle winning the first 3 events, but going down to defeat 43 to 23.

BOWLING

STANDING: Victor DiLorenzo, Frank Hudson, Fred Griffin, Arnold Zimmerman, Lawrence Green.

SEATED: Kenneth Kuehnle, Kenneth Dulinski, Jim Grycza, Dick Herman, Bob Ehlers.

Scott was represented by two teams in the high school bowling league after a lapse of several years. The keglers did very well for themselves and their Alma Mater. In the National League the Scotters were right up at the top, only one game behind Central, the league leaders, when the Scottonian went to press. The team in the American League was holding down fifth place.

BASEBALL

STANDING: Larry Moorehead, Don Huddleston, Ed Gibson, Danny Knauf, Carlos Bancroft, Hank Garn, Bob Ehlers, Coach Andy Kandik, Bob Weyant, Don McCleary, Corky Haynes, Don Dulinsky, Richard Melroy.

KNEELING: Ron Rasey, Frank Hudson, Milton Walker, Don Wisniewski, Norman Schindler, Gerry Weisberg, James Berry, Jim Arbuthnot, Bill Steinmyer.

Coach "Andy" Kandik, after taking over Scott baseball, led his brood into a tie with Macomber for second spot in the city league. DeVilbiss became the city title holder after surviving a close 4 to 3 ball game with the Bulldogs.

The Scott 1950 roster boasted outfielders Larry Moorehead, Jim Berry, Frank Hudson, and Eddy Gibson; infielders Carlos Bancroft, Ron Rasey, Don McCleary, Bob Weyant, Don Huddleston, and Norm Schindler; catchers Corky Haynes, Bob Ehlers, and Jerry Weisberg; pitchers Hank Garn, Jim Arbuthnot, Dan Knauf, Dick Melroy, and Milt Walker.

McCleary, Garn, Hudson, Bancroft, and Huddleston led the team in batting.

GOLF

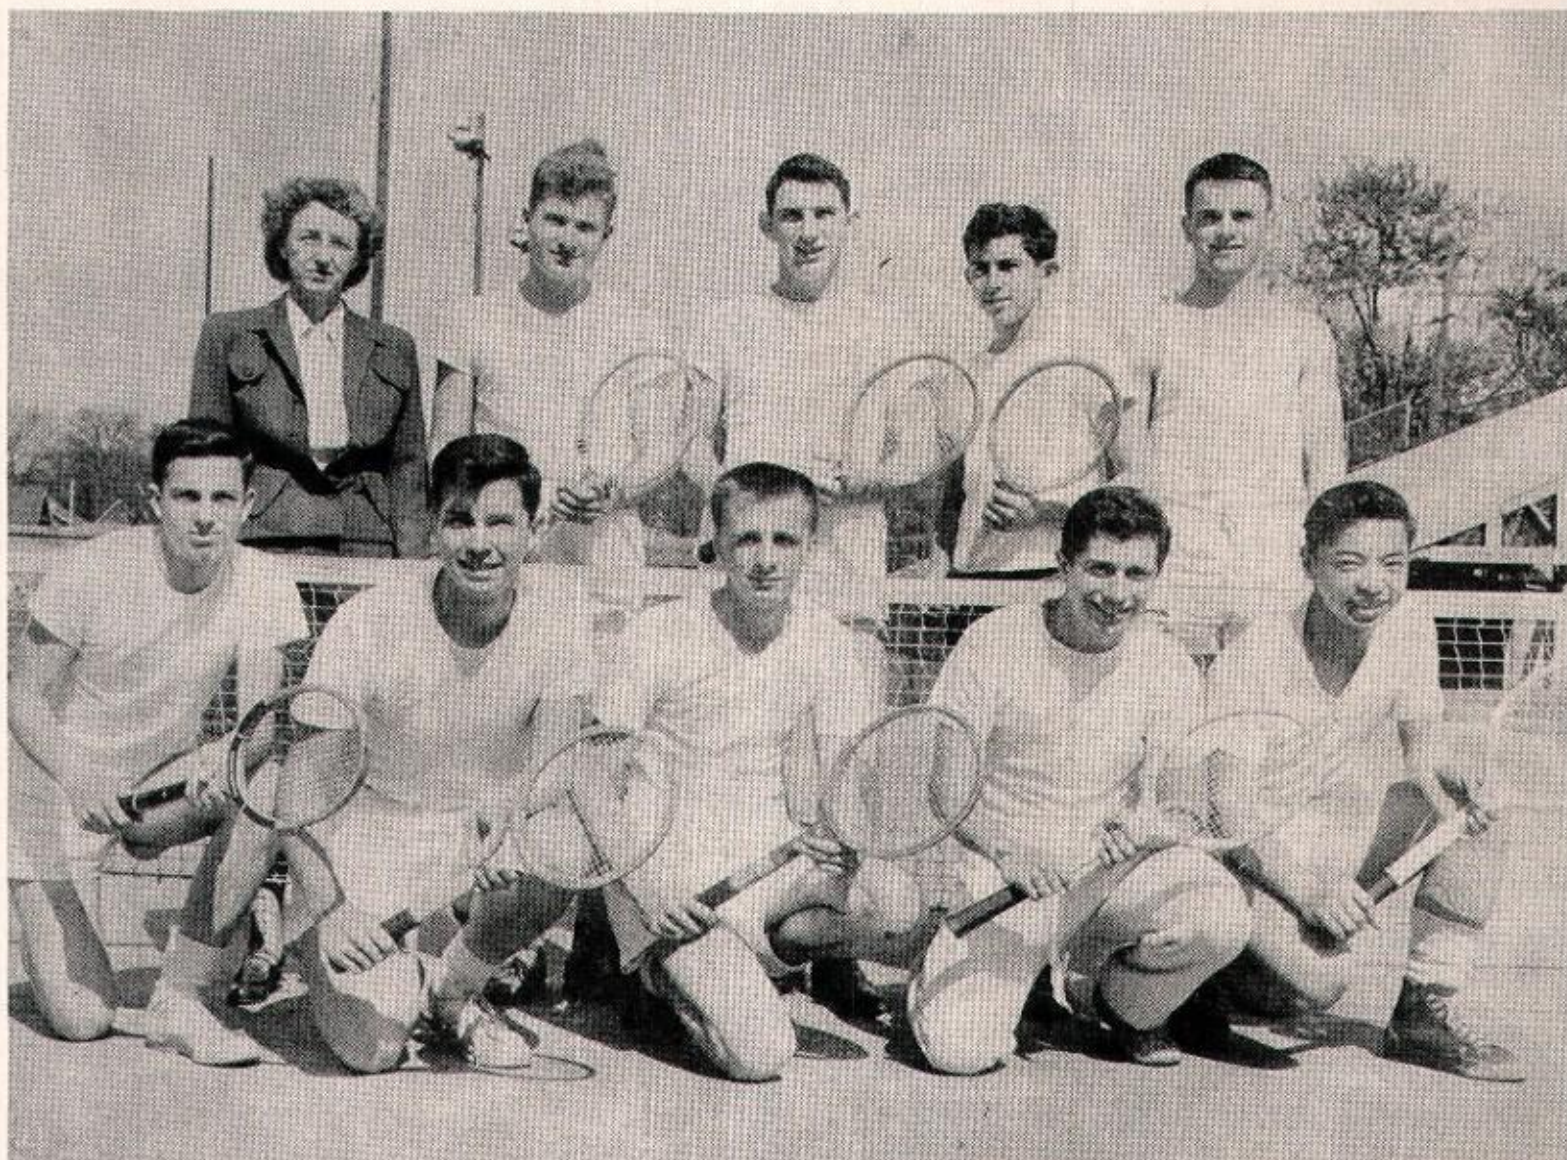

STANDING: Ed Binder, Wendell Dilworth, Mr. Lake, Bill Treuhaft.
KNEELING: Bob McClain, Henry Hullhorst, Don Fleming.

Rookie golfers predominated on the 1950 golf team. Of the seven active members of the squad, only Don Fleming and Bill Treuhaft will be missing on the Ottawa Park course in '51.

The inexperienced Bulldogs, nevertheless, were able to get past Libbey, Woodward, and Waite to finish their season in fourth place in the city. In the district tourney over the Heatherdowns course they came in seventh.

TENNIS

STANDING: Coach Geraldine Leitner, Richard Wachter, Beryl Harris, Fred Okun, Bill Seiple.

KNEELING: Gary Beren, Roger Johnson, Dallas Atlee, Dave Millstein, Donald Tom.

The season of 1950 was a comparatively good one for the Scott tennis team. Battling their way through the city league, the team ended in second place, losing only to city champion DeVilbiss.

The team, captained by the talented veteran Atlee, with follow-ups Roger Johnson and Dave Millstein playing singles, and the Bill Seiple-Donald Tom, and Beryl Harris-Gary Beren combos playing doubles, was coached by Miss Geraldine Leitner.

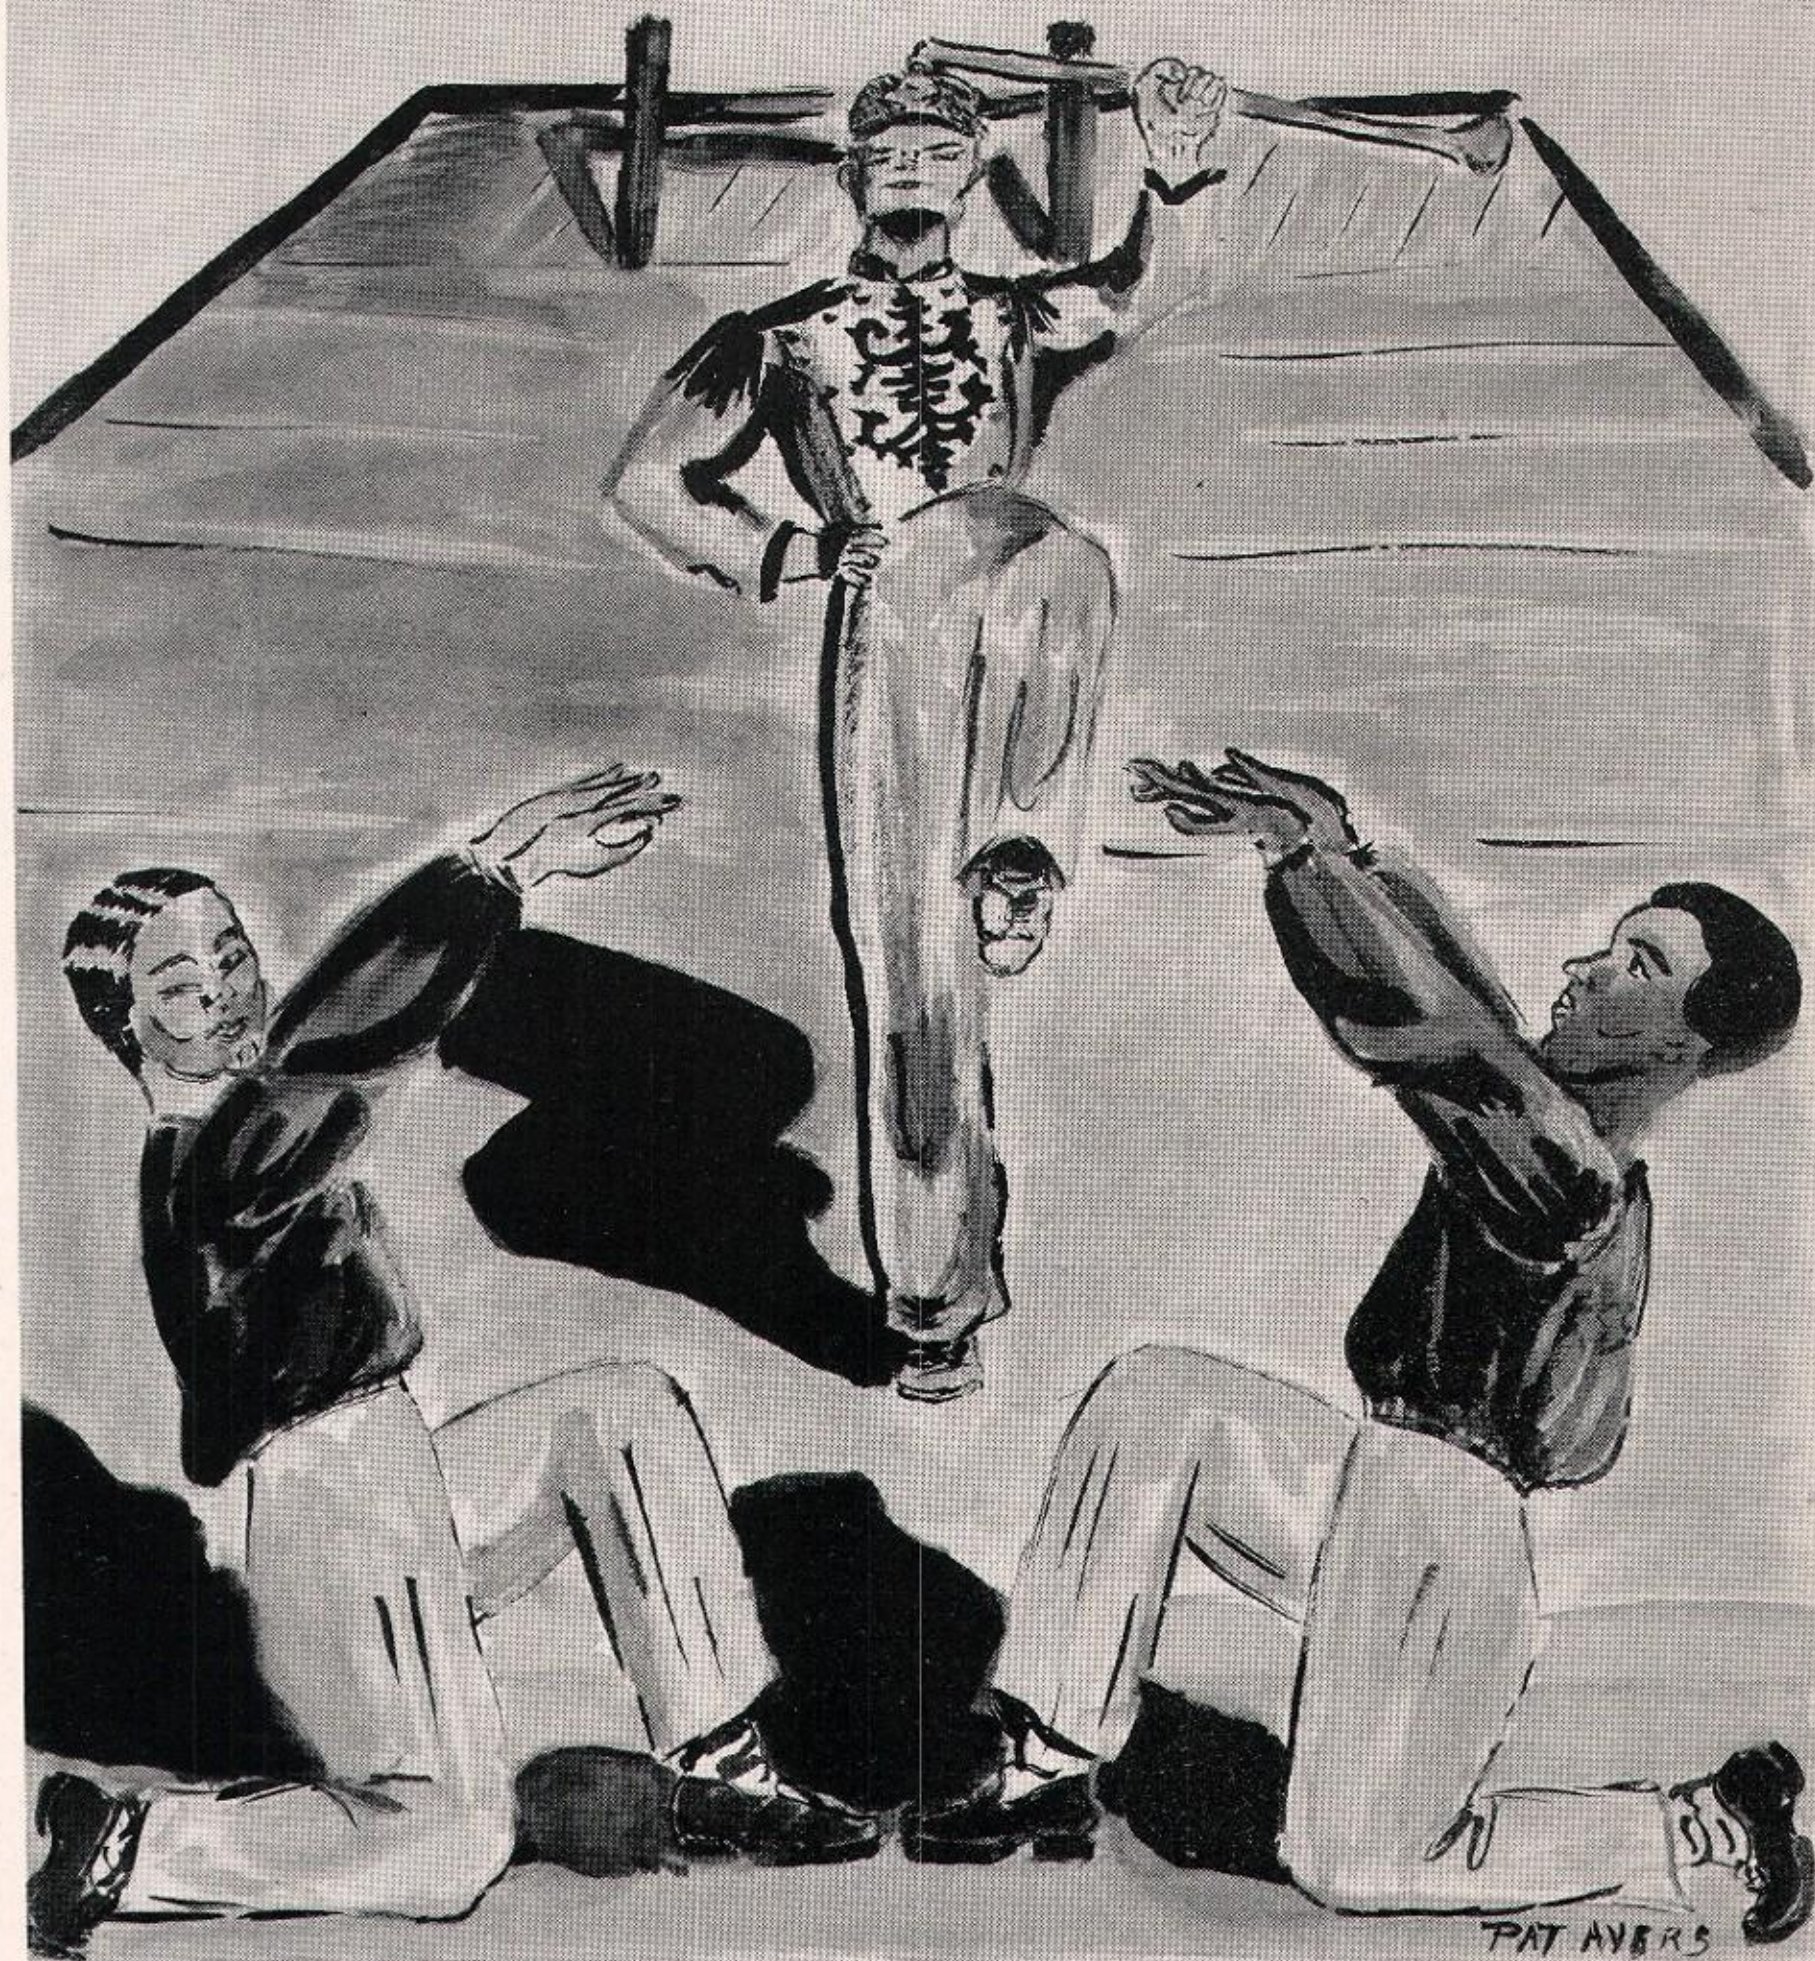

At the district meet in Bowling Green, Atlee was defeated in the semi-finals by Gerwer of DeVilbiss in three sets. The Johnson-Millstein combination was defeated by Fremont.

A Tradition of New Development

The history of Owens-Illinois is highlighted by developments which have made material contributions to better living.

The invention of the Owens bottle machine in 1904 by Michael J. Owens, one of the Company's founders, made it possible to mass produce low-cost glass containers.

Glass tumblers and other tableware are plentiful and inexpensive today because in 1906 Libbey Glass developed techniques for making them automatically.

Kaylo calcium silicate building and insulating products, first introduced by Owens-Illinois in 1943, make buildings warmer and more fireproof.

Many people enjoy better television today because in 1949 Owens-Illinois developed the rectangular all-glass bulb which makes possible better television pictures and smaller cabinets.

These are but a few of the developments which are reflected in products that the Company produces. More could be mentioned and there will be many more in the future. A continuous program of research and development benefits the public as well as Owens-Illinois, a name that stands for quality products.
